Her First Turkey.

The bride with many guides and books

Now starts to cook the turkey

Upon a chafing dish she cooks

And that prolongs her work

The chafing dish to her dismay

Won't hold the pesky thing

And so she cooks a leg today

Tomorrow cooks a wing

Thus hit by hit she cooks and cooks

That turkey is no fun

But by Thanksgiving day it looks

As if she'll have it done

McClure & Davis have opened an up-to-date Meat Market in the Blau-

EAST FORK.

On last Saturday morning the death
angel visited the happy home of Mrs.
John Queen and took from her her beloved companion. His illness was sudden but was severe, it being the dreadful disease tuberculosis. He was a devoted christian of the Baptist Church of Glenwood. He was 83 years old and had lived a christian life for about 40 years. We all miss him but he is far better off than we,
we being in a shadow of gloom, he in a glorious light above. Weep not, for the dear father and companion is in a better land that is not occupied by pain and sorrow. He had raised a happy family.

George Lavin passed through here Saturday morning with a fine drove of cattle.

G. B. Belcher made a business trip to the Bluegrass region and returned with a fine lot of cows and calves.

Mrs. Madge Banfield and little daughter Ruth, and Misses Marie and Monnie Handley took dinner with Mrs.
W. M. Taylor Sunday.

V. B. Shortridge and Wm. Taylor
dressed a fine lot of turkeys Saturday.
George Howell was a pleasant caller at Jane Woods Sunday.

Earle Bellew and Raymond Cyrus were calling on Misses Marie Handley and Gracie Belcher Sunday.

Mrs. Jesse Thacker and Mrs. Ida
Lockwood have been visiting relatives at this place for a short time, have returned home.

Miss Maude Smith has a real interesting class in agriculture at Trinity.
Miss Marie Handley spent Sunday with Gracie Belcher.

Several of this place attended the protracted meeting at Garret chapel.
Miss Vannie Shortridge spent Sunday with Beulah Miller.

Miss Lexie and Georgia Neal spent Sunday with Grace Belcher.

Miss Maude Smith spent Sunday with G. W. Handley's folks.

ington, Va., says: "In the last few years we have used

VICK'S Group and SALVE
constantly, and our belief in its efficiency has grown with continued use until in such cases we now rely entirely upon it, and have discarded the use of vapor lamps, internal medicines, and everything of the kind." Sample on
